Class Of 1992

Graduation is a time when we come together to share memories, to celebrate our accomplishments, and to look to the future.

We chose “New Horizons” as the theme for FOOTPRINTS 1992 because, although we will always remember the splendid times, treasured friends, and happy years at St. Joseph’s College, we look forward with great anticipation to what lies ahead.

We would like to thank all those who made it possible.

QUOTES OF THE MONTH

*Don't let your life be a catalogue of mistakes.
It should be a collection of moments, some good,
some bad, and some that you love.*

*Don't let your 40th birthday be the day
when you realize you've wasted your life.*

*Don't let your 40th birthday be the day
when you realize you've wasted your life.*

*Don't wait for your 40th birthday to be a day
Go after it if it's what you want, knowing that for every step you take,*

*Don't feel like you've failed
when plans and dreams fall short of your hopes.
Anytime you learn something new about yourself or your life, you have progressed.*

*Don't do anything that takes away from self-respect.
Feeling good about yourself is essential to feeling good about life.*

*Don't ever forget how to laugh or be too proud to cry.
It is by doing both that we live life to the fullest.*

*We, the class of 1992,
dedicate this year's edition of FOOTPRINTS,
with deepest appreciation, to our parents.
You have encouraged us through the hard times and applauded our accomplishments.
You have given us the determination to succeed.
For these reasons we can never thank you enough for being our strength and our support.
WE LOVE YOU!*

Parents.

are those wonderful people who want our lives to be happy and complete.

*They laugh our laughter, cry our tears
and dream our dreams.*

we may become,
no matter where we go in life
or what we do,
we never outgrow
our parents' love.*

WHERE WILL YOU BE

I'm looking forward to my future as an inspirational teacher and a life full of love and happiness with Robert, my family and friends. -J.B.

In the years to come I am looking forward to being a teacher and having good memories of the time I spent at St. Joe's. -F.P.

Ten years from now I'll be out of New York, happily married with a good career. I'll still be in touch with my good friends and obtain the things that I want in life. -L.L.

I hope the future holds much happiness, health and success in all I do. I hope to be happily married and going forward in my career. -C.M.L.

The past is dust. The future is unlit. It is the present that is burning. You must keep the future lit. The match is only the beginning. Inhale the smoke of your destiny. -K.R.

I hope to fulfill my dreams and goals by teaching and striving to get my masters in speech. I will also be married and hopefully starting a family. -N.M.

I see myself happily married to Luis and living wherever the Army sends us, hopefully Hawaii. I want to be happy, healthy and successful in whatever I do. -J.J.

Ten years from now I see myself very much the same. As long as I have success, health, happiness, friends, family and of course, Benny, to support me along the way, I'll be just great! -S.D.

In 10 years I'll be a CPA, married to a great guy with 2 or 3 children; and, thanks to St. Joe's, I'll have several special friends. -K.K.

I hope to be a happily married, successful teacher with a wonderful family, beautiful home, luxurious car, and outrageous boat. What can I say, I want it ALL! -M.S.

In the years that are quickly approaching, I wish my family health and happiness always and I intend to fulfill my goals in life, including happiness with the person I care for so very much. -M.P.

The future? I can't think about that. I'm just surprised I got out of here in 4 years. The score is: Tom 4 and Matt 6. -T.T.

I would like to be with a loving husband, have a family, a successful career and the ability to make a difference in the world. -D.M.

I do not know what my future holds for me. But I hope it includes a life of service, healing and contribution to my fellow man. -J.C.

Hopefully, 10 years from now, I would have furthered my career and become a CPA. I also would like to settle down and live a full and exciting life with my beautiful, loving wife. -J.M.

In ten years I will be practicing podiatry. I will be reminiscing with a few special people and laughing at all the gossip that was told by many. -E.S.

Only time will tell what is in store for us in life. I hope and wish for it to be a happy and prosperous one, enjoyed with a loving and healthy family. -C.L.

My future will be filled with love, happiness, and success. I will be very rich, with a gorgeous husband, living in a huge house, with two cars and a baby on the way. -T.O.D.

IN 2002 . . .

It would be impossible to determine exactly where I'll be in ten years, but as long as I have a smile on my face and a joy in my heart, do the details really matter anyway? -T.M.

Ten years from now, as I'm driving past St. Joe's in my Jaguar with my gorgeous husband and five children, I'll think of all my friends and hope you're all happy, healthy (and rich). -J.B.

In ten years I hope to be doing the one thing I love best in life and that's educating children. I hope to be happy, successful and married to the love of my life, Paul. -A.G.

My future will be full of success and happiness. I will be working with special education children. I also hope to be married with one or two children. I will obtain all the goals I desire. -M.M.

I'll be Regional Sales Manager at a major company where I hope to be making personnel, marketing, investment and accounting decisions. After that I'll be on my way to being CFO. -J.D.

I see myself in countries like France or Haiti. I see myself starting success, if not already fully successful. I see myself married with at least three children as intelligent and beautiful as their mother. -C.M.

In ten years, I hope to have a successful career on Wall Street, be happily married to a great guy, have two wonderful children and have many fond memories of my days at St. Joseph's. -L.R.G.

Ten years from now I hope to be married and on my way to total financial stability. My biggest goal is to return to my beautiful Island of Grenada where I can further my career. -M.C.

I want to travel and see the rest of the world in the next decade, be successful in my own physical therapy practice, help children, and have a couple of my own. -D.C.

I expect to be living my life doing whatever makes me happy: loving, sharing and curing for the people in my life. -A.B.L.

My future is a mystery novel which is sure to be filled with the unexpected. The clue is to live each day to the fullest so that the solution is many dreams coming true. -J.H.

My future holds a career in working with little children. Later on, I will be discovered and become a famous actress with a devoted hubby and at least four children. -K.A.S.

I think my future in ten years will be full of love, success and respect. Hopefully I will be teaching and having my second child on the way by then. My husband will be successful, rich and wonderful. -K.R.

The future is not something that is easily predicted. I have dreams and aspirations that I hope I will fulfill. I hope to have a loving husband, a beautiful family and be a successful Speech Pathologist. -L.H.

Married? Children? Doctor? Pfizer? Only time will tell. The only thing I know for sure is I'm going to live one moment at a time and be happy every step of the way. -K.M.

The future is where you build up your dreams. The future can hold many great opportunities and love. I'm looking forward to teaching elementary school and getting married to a very special and understanding man. -F.C.

I see myself as a calmer and happier person, successfully working as a Speech Pathologist. I also hope to be happily married to a very important person in my life whom I love alot, Fronkie. -E.M.

I have hopes and dreams of fame and fortune, which are unpredictable. I hope to get through each day with the pride my parents hold in me and the morals and values they have instilled in me. -J.S.

ONLY TIME WILL TELL

The future is uncertain. Simply, I hope to be someone I can be proud of. -J.G.

Ten years from now, I can see myself as a successful teacher traveling around Europe.

Future = Happiness² + Children' x Husband ÷ Career - Sorrows. -E.D.

For me, the future holds a lifetime of happiness with my love, Dove. -P.M.

I see myself as a successful teacher traveling around the world. And possibly, living a year or two in Puerto Rico or Italy with my future husband. -M.O.

Building a life with the person who, during the past year, has taught me more about love than I will ever learn in a lifetime. -S.F.

Pride in all I accomplish . . . Laughter from every thought . . . Happiness to fill my days . . . A wonderful marriage with lots of love. Ronnie, I'll love you always and forever! You're my inspiration! -K.M.

Ten years from now I see myself wealthy, healthy and successful due to the love and devotion of my parents and brother. -R.P.

The future holds a great many things for me. I feel that teaching will provide me with many rewards: spiritually, mentally and socially. -S.P.

Ten years from now I will be a successful accountant in a large firm. I'll be married to my wonderful future husband, John Carbone. -L.D.

In the future I plan to be the director and owner of a Day Care Center. I also hope to be married with many children. -J.P.

Ten years from now I hope to be healthy, wealthy and wise working in my area and learning more about it and myself. -C.L.

Driving around in my automobile . . . with no particular place to go. -D.S.S.

Living and sharing a life with the person who, even today, makes me the happiest. -L.L.

. . . I hope to be successful, healthy and happy and as much in love then as I am today. -K.B.

If I'm loved as much as I am today and still surrounded by such awesome friends, my future will be incredible. -A.M.S.

Happy, calm (. . . HA!HA!), healthy, very rich and living in a beach house on a tropical island. -H.A.J.

I'd like to teach people to cherish their lives, to treat others with only respectful compassion, and to always love more than I am loved. -M.A.O.

I hope to be inspiring the students that I will be teaching, academically, emotionally, and spiritually. My contribution to society will be to share the gifts and talents that I have acquired with my students, family and friends. -Y.L.

Mom, Dad, Jennifer, Gina,

Thank you for getting me through all of life's little disappointments. Your love and guidance has always been there for me.

John,

Thank you for being there when I needed a shoulder to cry on. Your love and support got me through four years of "living hell". I'm so happy I have you for the rest of my life!

Jennifer & Gina,

I hope you enjoyed "borrowing" my clothes and finishing my hairspray. This is the last year you will be able to do it!

Robin,

You will always be my best friend. Remember you volunteered to babysit for my future brats.

Mom, Dad & Jenn,

Thank you for your constant support & guidance, and most of all for your love. I love you guys!

John,

You've been my best friend here for 4 years! There's so much more I could say . . . but you already know. Thank you for everything. Just think, next year we'll go out in the city after work for a drink — like real accountants!

Eileen, Jackie, & Kari,

Thank you for always being there for me—you guys are true friends & I love ya! Good Luck!

Mr. McD., Mr. Fasano & Prof. Mc Kaigney, Thanks you guys, not for all the tests you gave me, but for preparing me for the real business world.

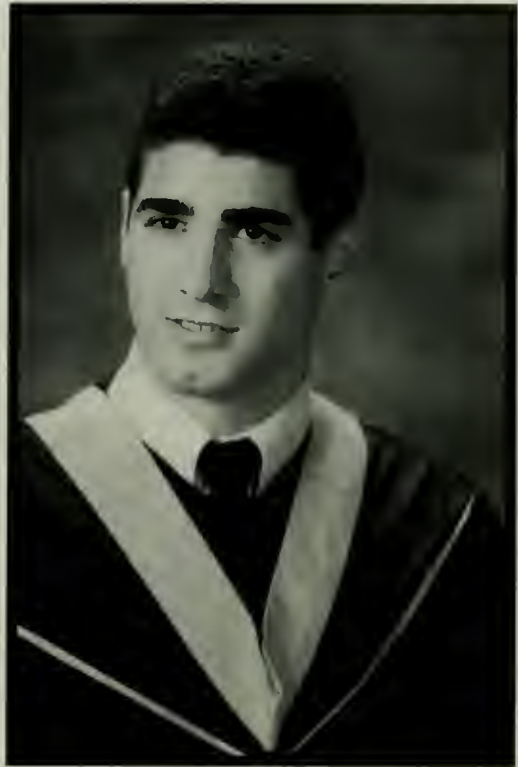

Kristine M. Kresse, B.S.

I owe the most thanks to my parents for giving me the opportunity to go to St. Joseph's and for all their love and support.

My years at St. Joseph's College have been my best by far. I made many great friends and have lots of memories of the fun times over the years. I hope the friends I made and the memories will last forever.

I also would like to thank the faculty and teachers for their efforts to educate and guide me throughout my stay at St. Joseph's.

Dear Mom & Dad,

Thanks for all the love and support you have given me over the years. You both mean the world to me. I love you.

Anthony, I couldn't ask for a better brother than you. Thanks for making my last two years in college so much fun. I love you.

To Ms. McKaigney: You truly are a great teacher and a special person. Thanks for everything.

To all my "Crazy what's up" friends: You've given me so many special memories of St. Joseph's. Good Luck to everyone. I'll miss you but I'll never forget our times together.

Mom — Thank you for all your love, support and encouragement. I love you.

Words can not say how much love and respect I have for you, Mom and Dad. You have given me much love, guidance, and support through the years. Decisions that you chose for me were made with love. You sacrificed many things to make me happy. You have given me two special sisters, a happy home, the best education and warm memories.

Julie and Theresa — I could not have made it through these four years without all the fun and laughter.

Mike — I love you. Thanks for always being there.

Best of luck to the class of 1992 and all my friends!

To all who have supported me: Thanks!

Mom: Thanks for the support, love, guidance and sacrifices. I love you!

Dad & Sharon: Thanks for the encouragement and protection you gave me.

Colleen & Mike: We've had some good and bad times. Thanks for being there.

Frankie: Words can not describe my feelings for you. Thanks for all your love and encouragement. The future looks bright because of you. I love you.

To all my friends (Allie, Heather, Laura, etc.):

Your friendship means the world to me!

Since you went away, a part of my life has been missing. You are my only brother and I hope that I will never lose you. I know we should talk more often, but I do love you. Thank you for being my brother.

To the five good friends that I have at Saint Joseph's College. Thanks for everything. I will miss you. You are the greatest! To three great teachers who have been very helpful to me, thank you: Dr. Kelly, Prof. Araimo, Louise Rose.

TO OUR NEW MEMBERS !

BEST WISHES
TO ALL OF YOU
FROM

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION
SAINT JOSEPH'S COLLEGE

*To Our Daughter
Suzanne,*

May you always retain your gusto for life, your compassion for others, and your unyielding determination when you know you are right. To borrow a phrase from an old song: "We love you more today than yesterday, But not as much as tomorrow."

Proudly, Mom & Dad

Dear Suzanne,

Congratulations on one of the hardest goals in life. Since I met you, you have been working as hard as I ever saw anyone work to achieve the best grades. You also took on many more responsibilities during this time . . . agreeing to be my wife . . . You are a very aggressive person, always wanting to be on top. I will always be behind you. I Love You.

Love always,
Benedict

To Suzanne,

I know there have been times when being sisters wasn't easy, but we always knew that we cared about one another. Even though life is full of changes, we will always have each other, and we will always share a special bond of love. I'm very proud and honored to call you sister. Congratulations! You made it!

My Love Always,
Christine

To Mom & Dad,

A little space and yet so much to say. You have always taught me to get what you want out of life, you will have to give the best of yourself. Well, today I see myself looking back and owing it all to you. You can not give your best if you do not have love, encouragement, and strength, all of which you have given to me. Graduation is a great step in my future, all of which I could never have done without you. Thank you for being the best parents, confiders, but most of all for being my friends. You both truly are the "wind beneath my wings!" I love you!!

Love,
Suzanne

Janine,

Congratulations on all your accomplishments at St. Joseph's. You have made us extremely proud of the intelligent, confident and caring young woman you've become. Our wish for you is a long and healthy life filled with love, joy and success.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Janine,

Congratulations on your graduation. You've put so much into your accomplishment. I am so proud of all you have done. All that remains is the fruits of your labor. You and I have been through so much together, and together we still have forever. Soon we will start a new life elsewhere, and I hope it brings you only more joy.

Love,
Luis

Congratulations!

J--

You've been a great sister and friend. Most of the great memories of my life include you, and I'm going to miss you more than you know. Thanks for playing chew and show, instant mashed potatoes on the ceiling, the many moons, taking my clothes, and for being the most conservative Conservative to argue with, but especially for always being right about my love life. Congratulations on getting through four years of every semester being "THE worst one!"

Love always,
Danielle (The D-word)

P.S. Uncle Norman will be so proud!

Dear Janine:

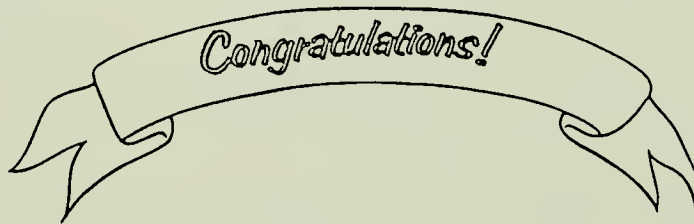

The past few months have been a blast. You and your mom (and I guess Danielle, too) have made me feel more than welcome and a part of the family. Thanks. Best of luck to you and Luis and on your graduation. And always remember: Shake it, don't break it . . .

Love, Marty

To Suzanne and Heather:

The Lunachick Legacy lives on. Congratulations and Good Luck in all you do.

Love,

To My Rabbit,

I love you! I am very proud of you — not just your accomplishments, but of who you have become. I'll always be your friend as well as your Father — but, darling most of all I'll always love you.

*We believe in you and know you have what it takes

Kelly,

Bravo, you really made it! You have worked hard and persevered to reach this point. Now that graduation day is here, you can be justifiably proud of all you have accomplished. You are now embarking on a new phase of your life where-in you will impart what you have learned on a generation of children with a need for knowledge.

You have made us very, very proud of you and you will always have our love and support. Always be true to yourself and go and get them kid.

God Bless you always.

Love,

Mom, Dad, Kim & Kerry

P.S. A determined person who works hard can accomplish anything.

Kim,

Your graduation from St. Joseph's brings to reality the dream you had four years ago. You have worked very hard to make the dream come true and you have had many successes along the way. As with an ending there is also a beginning. Now you will begin the journey to achieve the final part of that dream in Medical School.

We are so very proud of all that you have accomplished thus far and no matter what the future brings we will always be there for you. Just stay as lovely and considerate as you are now.

God Bless you always.

Love,

Mom, Dad, Kelly

& Kerry

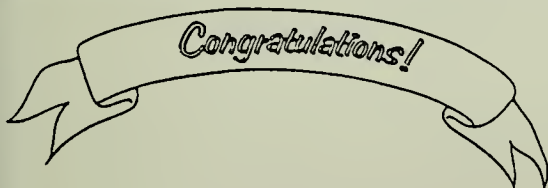

P.S. Your horizon is as distant as your mind's eye wishes it to be.

*My Dear Christine,
My little girl has grown into a bright and beautiful woman of the nineties.
You are caring, a friend, a confidant.
Let you leap into your teaching career with courage and conviction.

are a beautiful person inside as well as on the outside. Never change Jeam; always stay as strong as you are and remember God loves you and He is always there for you.*

*All our love,
Mom & Dad*

Dear Maria,

Where has the time gone? There are simply no words to describe the pride we feel in seeing you be the first in our family to complete a college degree. The happiness and fulfillment we feel at being able to help you do so well and achieve the first part of your dream is great. Watching you grow into the sensitive, caring and intelligent person you now are has been our greatest joy and we love you very much. May you know only love, happiness and success every day of your life.

We love you,
Mom and Dad

Angie,

It seems these four years have passed so quickly, more quickly than they probably felt. I only wish it could have been a double graduation. Lots of luck and success.

Love you sis,
Carmen

To Mom & Dad,

Now that we have graduated once again I would like to thank you guys for all that you've done for me and for standing behind me through the good times and the bad times (most of '91). I couldn't have made it without you. I love you guys and will always do my best to make you proud.

Love always,
Kim

To Grandma & Aunt Margie,

The two of you have been a constant support these four years. I just want to say thank you and I'm glad you are both here to share this day with me.

Love always,
Kim

Kelly,

We've finished another chapter in our lives together and I'm glad for that and all the time we've had together. But now we're at the point where our stories are going to diverge and become our own. I just want you to know I hope all your chapters are filled with happiness and love. Remember I am always going to be there for you whenever you need me as your friend and sister. I love you.

Love always,
Kim

Kerry,

You are a wonderful sister and have always been there for me to talk to when I needed someone to listen. Thank you and I love you.

Love always,
Kim

Maria,

What can I say? We have become so close this past year and we have shared so much. We have been there to advise each other during troubled times and to share all the good stories and experiences. I want to thank you for everything you've done for me but mostly for just being you and caring. I know that no matter how things turn out for either of us, after today we'll both be fine and stronger for it. I know you'll do great things. Good luck & congratulations.

(Mush! Mush!)

Your friend always,
Kim

To the gang,

We've all become so close and shared so much these four years. I'm going to miss sharing stories and jokes with you all, every day. But this is not the end for us. Although we will be going to do different things, I hope we will stay close. Good luck and congratulations.

Love always,
Kim

TOP SINGLES OF 1991

1. "I've Been Thinking About You"/Londbeat: Melancholy pop-soul perfection; an unsettling, succinct rhythm underscores the haunted lead vocal.
2. "Crazy"/Seal: Memorable lyrics and humanized electronics made this a natural summer single.
3. "Gypsy Woman (She's Homeless)"/Crystal Waters: Sharp observations paired with a sharp hook ("La-da-dee/la-da-da/She's homeless") — the best kind of topical pop.
4. "I Wanna Sex You Up"/Color Me Badd: Not the Temptations, but who could resist?
5. "Smells Like Teen Spirit"/Nirvana: The most entertaining rock anthem to crack the charts since Alice Cooper's hallowed "School's Out."
6. "Something to Talk About"/Bianca Raitt: Seductive and adult.
7. "Enter Sandman"/Metallica: Doom-saying apocalyptic speed-metal crunch with a hummable chorus and an audible — even memorable — tag line ("We're off to never-never land").
8. "Mind Playing Tricks on Me"/Geta Boys: More subtle, funky and downright human than anybody could have expected these gangsta rappers to be.
9. "Losing My Religion"/R.E.M.: Pretty and a little sad, but never sentimental or weak.
10. "Black or White"/Michael Jackson: Think of it as an expression of personal policy rather than a statement of racial politics. And you can dance to it.

SUPER COUNTDOWN

Bills vs. Redskins

And at the end of the year we feel compelled to sort it all out. Why? To impose order on the culture jumble, perhaps to restore a reassuringly human scale

You know, it's really funny. When we first came here we were all very nervous and immature teenagers. Yet we acted as though we knew it all and that we had the world in our hands. Well, I still like to think that we still have the world in our hands but now we are so much wiser. I think that what we have learned and experienced here at St. Joseph's has to be just that, experienced. I don't think that I would take back one moment of my four years at St. Joseph's. I hope that my fellow classmates feel the same way.

I wish all my classmates nothing but success, health, and happiness in all that they do in life.

P.S. Remember, don't ever stop laughing; laughter is the cure for many a problem!

Sherrie: Thanks for all your help, your arms to separate Sue & me, and the late nights you stayed with us.

Sue: Well what can I say . . . We've had our moments! Good luck in all that you do in life; I wish you all the happiness in the world!

Janine: I wish you health and happiness in all your travels, and I hope we meet up at an Army-Navy game someday!!!

To all the Staff: Thanks for ALL your help. This book would not have been what it is if it were not for all your help.

Sherrie: "Yes we CAN complete this deadline!!"

"Is It Me?"

Endless laughter for all our stupid comments.

Last, but not least, to our past editors Karen & Danielle:

Thanks for the legacy!!! God, What was I . . . crazy???

Love,

Suzanne

Robert Wilson

They told me that life could be just what I made it—
Life could be fashioned and worn like a gown,
I, the designer; mine the decision
Whether to wear it with bonnet or crown.

And so I selected the prettiest pattern—
Life should be made of the rosiest hue—
Something unique, and a bit out of fashion,
One that perhaps would be chosen by few.

But other folks came and they leaned o'er my shoulder;
Somebody questioned the ultimate cost,
Somebody tangled the thread I was using,
One day I found that my scissors were lost.

And somebody claimed that the material faded,
Somebody said I'd be tired ere 'twas worn;
Somebody's fingers, too pointed and spiteful,
Snatched at the cloth, and I saw it was torn.

Oh somebody tried to do all the sewing,
Wanting always to advise or condone,
Here is my life, the product of many;
Where is that gown I could fashion—alone?
